DEDICATION OF FAITH GATHERING PLACE

Today is a day of celebration! While it may be Cinco de Mayo for the rest of the world, here at First Presbyterian our celebration will be the dedication of Faith Gathering Place and the amazing painting by local artist Ophelia Chambliss. This event will take place after the 10:45 service. Among the special guests attending will be Philadelphia jazz musician, Warren Cooper, son of the last installed pastor of Faith

Presbyterian, the late Rev. Dr. J. Jerome Cooper, and Ophelia Chambliss. Warren will also bring his ministry of music to our 10:45 worship service. The Racial Justice Committee hopes you will join us for the dedication and reception.

Coming Up!

Youth Group Envelope Fundraiser

Youth Group will hold our annual Envelope Fundraiser on Sunday, May 12 & 19, to support our mission trip!

The youth group will be available after both worship services with a display of 100 envelopes labeled $1 - $100. In total, if we get a supporter for each of our 100 envelopes, we will raise $5,050.

Nothing to buy, nothing to eat, nothing to deliver, nothing more than supporting the ministry of our youth and young adults.
